

REGULAR MEETING – MONDAY AT 5:00 P.M.

The Switzerland County Board of Commissioners met in regular session pursuant to law and by being duly advertised.

Those present: commissioners: Josh South, and Jamie Peters, and the county auditor, Carolyn Green. Commissioner Jerry Monjar was absent.

The meeting was called to order by Jamie with the Pledge of Allegiance.

A motion to approve the minutes, as presented, of December 21st was made by Josh, seconded by Jamie and the motion carried.

A motion to approve the claims, as presented, was made by Josh, seconded by Jamie and the motion carried.

#1 Rita Sullivan – Veteran Banners

Rita was in attendance on behalf of the Switzerland County Veterans' Council. The council is looking for a place to install a frame or poles on which to hang banners honoring our Switzerland County veterans for 4 months of the year. One place for consideration was over the cannon. The safety of the cannon was a concern. Another suggestion was over by the memorial in the courthouse lawn.

Josh made a motion to approve some place on the courthouse grounds with the exact place to be decided at a later date, seconded by Jamie and the motion carried.

#2 New Business

- A) County Health Board appointments (2): Two positions expire this year, and both applicants are asking to be reappointed. Jamie made a motion to table the appointments until the current political makeup of the Board could be verified, seconded by Josh and the motion carried.

Jamie expressed his gratitude to Josh for all of his help to him personally and for his service to the county.

With no further business to come before the board, Josh made the motion to adjourn, seconded by Jamie and the motion carried. The meeting adjourned at 5:15 p.m.
