REGULAR MEETING – PAGE 2

Paul Lapham-Pendleton Run/Teresa spoke on his behalf. Wanted to ask about not chip and seal for Pendleton Run. The road is used heavily for biking, running, walking etc. She does have a petition of all land owners that are also opposed. Jamie said if this was not done it would be irresponsible of the commissioners as far as keeping up with trying to prolong the pavement of the road.

Green Valley Road- Randy spoke with Christy Morgan on Green Valley Road. Resident had damage on Green Valley to help with clean up from the storm that came through. Jamie made a motion for the commissioners to provide a dumpster for the residents that had damage in the storm with Randy making a second. All in favor.

#4 Board Report:

None given

Jamie also spoke about the AARP money that is left for highway. At the council meeting it was discussed to possibly use some of that money for Moorefield Bennington. Jamie was going to ask commissioners about that but has decided not to ask and that the council should use casino revenue for Moorefield Bennington.

With no further business to come before the board, Jerry made a motion to adjourn, seconded by Randy. The meeting adjourned at 6:03 p.m.

Attest:

Gayle Sullivan, Auditor
